Pupils in tears after theft of school pets

vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk

HEARTBROKEN pupils at a Harlow primary school have made a tearful appeal to the callous thief who stole

The childen at Milwards Primary School and Nursery, in Paringdon Road, were shocked to return from their half-term break to discover six-month-old rusty-coloured guinea pig Chino had been stolen.

But the youngsters were to experience further heartbreak when the thief returned last Tuesday night and took two-year-old white rabbit Hannah.

"Everyone is absolutely devastated," said headteacher Angela Callaway. "These ani-mals are not worth anything to anyone so whoever has taken them is obviously playing a very cruel and heartless joke.

"Our children are in tears over this. They are their pets and someone has just come in and done who knows what with them. It's

On both occasions the animals, which are kept in a secure outdoor section in the middle of the school to keep them safe from foxes, were stolen at night. According to Ms Callaway the thief would have had to climb over the school roof to access the area.

"Police have found footprints and fingerprints on the vandalism paint but the main thing for us is getting these animals back she continued.

"The children have all written to the Star asking for the community's help in keeping an eye out for their pets in case the animals were dumped somewhere.

"They are part of the school and really have a calming effect on the children, especially those with special needs. I just can't understand the mentality of someone who would do this."

In one of the letters, 10-year-old Edna Opoku wrote the theft of the animals had left "a hole in my heart", while 11-year-old Ryan Endean said he was "traumatised and upset" by what had happened.

Ms Callaway added: "I bet these people have never had to tell a five-year-old that two of their pets have been stolen. It is simply

Detectives end probe into care home deaths

THE Harlow care home at the centre of a double death probe by police will not face criminal Detectives investigating the deaths of two elderly residents of the Partridge Care Centre in August have now concluded that no criminal offences were committed at the home.

They will also take no further action against a 36-year-old Enfield woman – believed to be a care worker at the home in Partridge Road – who was arrested during the investigation and currently on police bail.

An Essex Police spokesman said: "Detectives have been given detailed medical assessments by independent experts and used this information to conclude that no relevant criminal offences have been committed at the home.

"Accordingly, no further action will be taken against the woman who was on police bail."

One resident - an 89-year-old woman - died after being taken to Princess Alexandra Hospital on August 3. A second resident an 80-year-old woman passed away three days later.

A third, described by police as an 'elderly male', was admitted to PAH at the same time and

Daredevils hotfoot it to hospice fundraiser

vicky lane@hertsessexnews co.uk

STEPPING up to the coals in a hail of applause, I realised there was no longer any chance of turning back.

When I agreed to take part in St Clare Hospice's fundraising firewalk it had seemed like a good idea. At the time I thought, 'Why not?

But when greeted by the sight of a pit of metre-high flames as I walked up the drive of the hospice at Hastingwood it finally dawned on me what I had let myself in for.

There were 18 of us who had volunteered to walk barefoot across the white hot coals. Some were staff from the hospice, others curious to experience a firewalk. Then there were those who knew personally about the work the hospice does in the community, caring for those with terminal or life-limiting illnesses.

"My friend came here when she had cancer." one woman told me as we sat down for the firewalk briefing. "She was looked after so well; we'll never forget it."

Our instructor Steve, owner of the company Survivorbility which ran the event, explained that it was all about overcoming fear with a

"In one-and-a -half seconds this will be over for you guys," he said. "However, those you are doing it for have to face fear every day.

All too soon we were queuing up in a line next to the glowing coals, mentally psyching ourselves to go against every parental warning we had ever received.

Then it began and one by one my team-mates hot-footed it across the fiery pit, making it look like a stroll in the park. Suddenly, it was

Shaking, I fought against better instincts and took the crucial first step onto the coals With all senses heightened, I quickly realised with relief that it wasn't so bad. I could certainly feel the heat – and received a few minor burns here and there – but with a steady pace I was soon at the end, revelling in the cheers from our brilliant supporters. Together our plucky team raised an incredible

£6,200 for St Clare. But all knew the real courage came from those inside the hospice unable to come and join us that evening. The real rush was from knowing we'd done our bit to make their lives that little bit easier.

New resource centre putting unwanted items to good use

AN environmental charity recycling clean, usable waste into practical resources for local community groups and schools has opened up an outlet in Harlow.

The Phoenix Resource Centre collects 20 tonnes a week of surplus stock. offcuts and discarded goods such as fabric and unwanted gifts to be used for educational and fundraising purposes. Members – who can include nurseries, childminders, youth organisations, schools, playgroups, care homes, charities, art and theatre groups – pay an annual fee of £10 and are then able to purchase tokens to visit and collect materials for their lessons, social or charity events.

Following its success since launching two years ago, the group has expanded its operation to the top floor of the Harvey Centre car park after the shopping centre agreed to supply them with 30,000 sq.ft. of retail space. Harlow MP Robert Halfon, who officially opened the new centre, said: "The Phoenix Resource Centre is an inspirational place and possibly one of the best examples of the Big Society in action

"They stop thousands of products from going to landfill and instead ensure that they are recycled and given back to the community. I suggest that there is nothing like this going on elsewhere in the

Expenses inquiry at police authority

METROPOLITAN Police officers are investigating alleged overpayment of expenses to members of Essex Police Authority.

A Scotland Yard spokesman confirmed the force was "assisting" with an internal investigation prompted by the findings of the authority's auditors but refused to comment further.

The EPA, an independent organisation tasked with supporting and scrutinising the work of the county's police, was equally tight-lipped when approached for comment.

"The Essex Police Authority instructed its auditors to investigate expense overpayments to some members and the handling of those overpayments," a spokesman said.

"In light of the auditors' findings and on the advice of the Chief Constable of Essex Police, the authority felt it appropriate to ask the Metropolitan Police to conduct an investigation into the auditors' findings. They have investigation is ongoing."

Olympic torch relay to pass through Harlow

By CHRIS MOSS, News Editor chris.moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

THE Olympic Torch will light up Harlow next summer as it heads towards the capital for the start of the London 2012 Games.

The London Organising Committee of the Olympic and Paralympic Games confirmed this week the flame will pass through the town on Saturday, July 7 as it enters the final stretch of its 70-day, 8,000-mile journey across the UK.

Harlow Council is currently working on plans to ensure the town looks its best for the procession and plans to mark the historic event with a day of celebration featuring street entertainment, sports and arts displays and themed markets.

Tony Hall, Harlow Council's portfolio holder for the environment and the authority's Olympic Champion, told the Star: "This will be an unforgettable occasion for Harlow residents to witness and is a huge boost in the year in which we celebrate our 65th birthday as a new town.

"The council will be leading a day of celebration in Harlow so it will be a truly historic moment for everyone to come together. We need as many people as possi-

Waste plant protestors set up online petition

CAMPAIGNERS fighting proposals to build a waste transfer site in Harlow less than 250 yards from their homes and a primary school have launched an online petition in a bid to persuade Essex County Council to rethink its plan.

The new development at Templefields could handle up to 55,000 tonnes of household and garden waste from Harlow and Epping each year and will require up to 100 extra collec-tion vehicles to pass through the town every day.

However, the decision to approve the plans has infuriated local residents who claim the site will result in increased traffic, noise, pollution and vermin. They are appealing to paign by signing the e-petition on the county council's web-

"This is not over yet," said Harlow councillor Paul Schroder, who set up the petition on behalf of a recently-formed action group fighting the pro-"We will continue to fight this decision which is not in the best interests of my constituents or of anyone in Harlow.

"One of the ways that Harlow people can help is to sign the e-petition to get this decision reversed."

Safety warning after rise in number of kitchen fires

ESSEX Fire Service is urging residents to take more care at home following a spate of kitchen fires across Harlow.

Firefighters have attended 12 kitchen-related fires across Harlow since June, five of which have occurred in the past month. "We have seen a dramatic rise in the amount of kitchen fires within the area," said Harlow station commander Jon Anderson.

"I remind all your readers to remain vigilant towards fire safety and never leave cooking unattended."

The fire service advises householders to ensure their cooking appliances are kept in good working order, to shut all doors when going to bed and to never leave children alone in the kitchen.

They are also encouraging people to check their smoke alarm once a week, keep loose clothing, tea towels and cloths away from the cooker and hob and to take extra care when cooking with hot oil.

Councillor should do the honourable thing and qu

Party I was extremely disappointed to learn of Councillor Michael Garnett's recent vote in favour of the proposed waste transfer station at Templefields.

His subsequent comments in the Star regarding not only the waste transfer station but also the proposed housing development in Gilden Way served only to reinforce the view of many that he has finally lost the plot and is completely out of touch with his local electorate.

As he no longer seems able to represent the views of the majority of people within his ward, perhaps it would be better for all concerned if he did the honourable thing and relinquished his seat immediately.

This would at least allow someone who concurs with the views of the local population to more accurately represent them.

No excuse for bad manners

SIR, Whilst not wishing to prolong the debate on Educating Essex, I feel I must reply to some of the responses to my first letter.

Just because we live in a changing world does not mean that we have to accept rude and disrespectful behaviour. In fact, the world has only changed for this generation as my children both tell me that they would never have been allowed to get away with such bad manners.

And no, Mr Howes, they were not beaten to keep them in line.

Of course bad parenting and the breakdown of families is to blame in some cases, but my three grandchildren who also attend Passmores are being raised by a single parent and would most certainly never talk to an adult with anything but respect.

I have visited the school on many occassions and have always found the teachers dedicated and

I only hope that everyone remained viewing until the final episode which I found to be most uplifting. No swearing, no aggressive behaviour and the delightful Ryan who absolutely adored Mr Goddard and his fellow classmates. What a lovely end to an otherwise disturbing documentary.

Carole Lomas Radburn Close, Harlow

Proud to have Passmores

SIR, I do not feel the same as Carole Lomas in her letter criticising Passmores School. I have a grandson who attends the school, is making excellent progress and enjoys the experience behaved and respects his teachers. Unfortunately the programme makers focused on half a dozen disruptive pupils from difficult home backgrounds out of approximately a hundred in their final year to create a reality TV programme of confrontation and

All schools have to manage a small minority of pupils with acute behavioural problems. Even so, I am very impressed with the support, patience and care the staff display in helping difficult pupils continue at school, take their exams and pass.

An excellent structure of rules, discipline and punishment is shown within a very caring and compassionate culture. Exclusion of a pupil appears to be seen as a failure of the school.

When one-third of convicted rioters had previously been excluded from school and two-thirds had special educational needs, the Passmores approach acts as a model for others to follow and perhaps produce fewer alienated and violent youth. Harlow should be proud and grateful it has a school

Poor display of park plans

Although I was invited to fill in a questionnaire on the proposed improvements, the main poster was ruined for me by the spelling mistakes and the 'games' I was invited to play which left an overall impression of a very amateur and half-hearted attempt at public consultation.

As a Harlow resident and Town Park user I am quite capable of reading and understanding well-written literature on any proposed developments to what is the main attraction in the town and then giving my views to the relevant council department.

That is, of course, if Harlow Council actually want to hear the opinion of residents about changes to

Travellers' argument flawed

SIR, Paul Topley seems to have tripped over his coat tails in his haste to defend the Dale Farm travellers (Letters, October 27).

I did not say driving them from their homes was acceptable but that their defence that a hardcore road made the site a brownfield site was flawed homes. I wonder why?

His comparison of the Jewish nation with travellers is fraudulent in that the Jews are an extremely industrious, intelligent and very law-abiding group. It would be better to insert another minority group in the 'Guardian test', say the Socialist Workers Party, whom I certainly would not wish to live next

Yes, I once held public office and, if I may blow my own trumpet, when I was a councillor levered the Leisurezone down the slipway when it was looking for a home, I precipitated the gaining of a splendid CPA report for Harlow and I insisted that the four priority/unsustainable estates were put on the agenda from whence they had been buried by Labour as it may have lost them votes.

Since then I have been very suspicious of tightly knit politically motivated groups who attempt to inflict the views of a vociferous minority on the unsuspecting majority. Empty trumpets unfortunately do tend to make a lot of noise.

I am not now seeking public office. Having done my bit I am quite happy to let my wonderful wife do that. She is much better at it than me in any case.

Chelsea Gardens, Harlow

Put a stop to junk mail

SIR, Today I have spent the day at home. After my postman delivered my mail I had four more posts through my door – a flyer about a driving school, a bag for clothing collections for a Third World country and not one but two pizza menus.

Every week I put between 15-20 items of junk mail in my bins (recycling where applicable, of course). It's no wonder we have some much waste these days. I live in a road with over 300 households. Can you image how much waste Milwards alone creates?

The whole mailshot exercise surely cannot drum up that much new business and it litters my hallway on a daily basis. Please stop putting rubbish through my

SIR, Through your paper I'd just like to thank the network bus service that operates in Harlow. It has become so terrible and unreliable these days I rarely get the bus and walk near enough everywhere I need to go. Firm but fair approach to issue of immigration

We have to get to grips with immigration. Whilst England rightly has a proud tradition of fairness, tolerance and compassion to those in need, the levels of immigration to this country have been unsustainable in recent vears

Time and time again, residents raise this issue with me. It is a deep source of unease and frustration, especially given worries about jobs, housing and the difficult economy.

Under Labour, net immigration totalled 2.2 million – double the population of Birmingham. It was simply out of control.

Most Harlow residents are not against entrepreneurs or investors coming to Britain but they want immigration to be fair. People should speak English, pay their taxes and not burden hard-pressed taxpayers too heavily.

There are ways to cut unsustainable levels of immigration firmly but fairly. In 18 months, the Government has capped migration from outside of the EU, clamped down on abuse of the family visa route, student visas and begun preparations to establish a dedicated

A stop is being put on false marriages and there will be much stricter citizenship tests. From now on, it will have a proper focus on British history and culture.

There will also be changes to human rights laws. No longer will the European Convention on Human Rights be used as a back door mechanism for immigration. Housing allocation will be made much fairer, with local people given priority. Harlow housing for Harlow people.

In order to win people's confidence, immigration will be bought down to the levels of the 1980s and 1990s rather than the unsustainable levels of 1997-2011.

No fair person would be against all immigration to this country – and those who have made Britain their home should be treated as equally as any other citizen. But for too long the pendulum has swung too far in one direction.

Immigration must no longer be a source of unease amongst citizens. We must be tough but fair. The Government's plans to deal with our immigration chaos will go some way to alleviating fears.

Drama group misses out on Lottery prize

By VICKY LANE vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk

MEMBERS of performing arts group Razed Roof say they still feel like winners despite missing out on the top prize in Saturday's National Lottery Awards.

The Playhouse-based group for people with and without disabilities was one of four finalists competing for the title of Best Arts Project.

The winners were the Northern Ballet and Phoenix Dance Theatre from Leeds, who received the £2,000 prize at the awards ceremony which was broadcast live on BBC1 Razed Roof's artistic director Annette Lidster attended the ceremony with chairman Professor Peter Lines and two members.

'It was just an amazing night and even though we didn't win we also didn't feel like we had " she said.

"The evening wasn't about the competition but about celebrating the work and achievements of each of the finalists. By just being there we felt like winners.

"It also seemed natural for the winning group to get first prize. They are a massive organisation with thousands of members, so for us to even be competing against them is quite incredible.

Ms Lidster said the whole experience has helped to make the Razed Roof group even Tony Hall, Harlow Council's portfolio holder for the environ-ment, said: "This is a great scheme that will open up another area of the Town Park to visitors. The new footbridge and footpaths will create an inviting environment and the seats will make this an attractive spot to sit and spend

He added: "Thanks again to Harlow Wildlife Projects and their volunteers for helping to secure this substantial grant and carrying out the work.

'It has also proved to be a brilliant networking occasion with many exciting opportunities for the future now in the bag."

She added: "We want to extend our thanks to everyone in Harlow for their overwhelming support. People really appreciate what our small community group has achieved and we only got to where we did because of their votes and support. It has been really fantastic."

Begging buddies guilty of robbery

TWO beggars who stole two bottles from a caterer on his way to Harlow Town station have pleaded guilty to robbery.

Graham Lambert, 36, of The Hides, Harlow, and Paul Cotterell, 24, of no fixed abode, decided to commit the offence rather than stay on the streets begging, Chelmsford Crown Court was told.

Peter Gair, prosecuting, said the victim, Jamie Salisbury, was robbed while walk-ing with a friend along First Avenue when they were approached by the defendants who asked them for cigarettes or 50p.

who asked them for cigarettes of 30p.

Mr Gair said they refused and continued on their way to the station. "Mr Salisbury then had the bag ripped from him and the alcohol taken and was ordered to open another bag by Cottrell who was aggressive and threatened to hit him.

Lambert was given a suspended prison sentence while Cotterell was jailed for nine-months after refusing the chance of a suspended sentence.

Passing sentence, recorder Colin Chandler told the pair: "My impression of you both is that you appreciate you've become menaces to society as a consequence of the drug and alcohol abuse that's been going on of late and you found it difficult to control yourselves.

Trio take steps to help homeless homeless in Harlow will be able to provide its clients with extra warm clothing this winter after a trio of youngsters helped to top up funds by holding a sponsored event.

Alexandra (10) and Max (7) West and James Daniels (8) presented a cheque for £205 to Streets2Homes after taking part in an hour-long run in aid of the charity.

The trio, who called themselves the Cheeky Cheetahs, are from Newport near Saffron Walden. They decided to organise the fundraiser after representatives of the charity visited their Sunday club.

Kerrie Eastman, manager of Streets2Homes based at Wych Elm, thanked the children for their fundraising efforts. "The money will help us to buy sleeping bags, gloves, scarfs and other warm clothes for the winter months and also continue providing hot meals for our clients," she said. Kerrie is pictured with Alexandra, Max and James and Janet Daniels.

SPINNEY JUNIORS

Learning will be a breeze for children at the Cooks Spinny school with the opening of a new outdoor classroom.

The all-weather facility, which was funded by the school and took six weeks to build, will provide pupils with an area for outdoor learning and relaxation in an environment that is designed to stimulate the mind and senses. Interim headteacher Lella Yates said the room has been equipped with a sensory garden, fountain, tables, story chair and a stage for outdoor productions, to enhance the learning experience.

"The reaction so far has been fantastic and the children are really enjoying their new education area," she said.

"We hope our new outdoor classroom will not only motivate the children but also teach them respect of the outside environment and be enjoyable." Pictured with Mrs Yates

LITTLE EXPLORERS

Celebrations were spiced up with Indian-themed activities and food when children at the pre-school in Purford Green marked the Hindu festival of Diwali.

They were told the story of the festival of lights, dressed up in saris to re-enact the tale and learned some Indian dance moves to traditional music. Throughout the three-day celebration they also decorated their own outfits and tasted some Indian cuisine including naan bread, poppadoms and mango chutney.

"All the children absolutely loved the special Diwali activities," said nursery comanager Jo Rowe.

"Although we have always acknowledged the festival we have never used so many resources for the celebrations and it worked really well.

"The children learned a lot about the event and it really helps to make them more aware about other cultures."

BUSY BEES Children at the nursery in The Greenway, Harlow, are on the first steps to a healthier lifestyle with a new fitness

As part of the Golden Mile challenge at all 131 Busy Bees nurseries across the country, children will take part in two, four, six and eventually eight miles of physical activity over the next year in the lead up to the 2012 Olympics.

As well as encouraging families to keep fit and healthy, it will raise money for the Dame Kelly Holmes Legacy Trust which helps less fortunate children realise their sporting dreams.

Louise Christie, manager of the Harlow nursery, said: "By introducing the Golden Mile into our nurseries we hope to bring children an interactive fitness challenge for the whole family to embrace which is not only energetic but also fun."

Design a logo for Harlow's 65th anniversary year

NEXT year marks the 65th anniversary of Harlow New Town and to celebrate the Star has teamed up with Harlow Council to offer a talented young artist the chance to design a special birthday logo.

We are inviting budding Picassos aged 7-16 to come up with a design which captures what they feel about the town.

The winning entry will be used as the official symbol of the birthday celebrations which are set to take place throughout 2012. The logo needs to contain the words 'Harlow turns 65' and should be bright, inviting and easily understandable.

The winner will get to see their design on posters, leaflets, brochures, letterheads and the internet. They will also win a family ticket worth £52 to this year's Playhouse pantomime Peter Pan, which opens on December 2.

Entries must be submitted by December 8 and each must have the entrant's name, age, address and contact telephone number printed clearly on the reverse. No entries will be accepted after the deadline.

The winning entry will be chosen by a panel including the Harlow Council chief executive Malcolm Morley and the editor of the Star. Details of the winning entry will be published in the Star on December 15.

Post your entries to 65th Birthday Logo Competition, Harlow Council, Civic Offices, The Water Gardens, Harlow, Essex CM20 1WG or email them to harlows65@harlow.gov.uk.

Competition rules

Keep the logo simple; use 3-4 colours maximum.

Entries should be submitted on an A4 sheet of paper or as a digital image.

Avoid using coloured pencils as they don't always hold their colour well when scanned.

Be unique! Get inspiration from things around you but don't copy designs that you have seen somewhere else.

Travellers quit site after court threat

TRAVELLERS trespassing on unsecured land near the town centre have moved on after being threatened with legal action by Harlow Council.

legal action by Harlow Council.

The group, believed to be from France, set up camp on Netteswell Plantation off Second Avenue on Friday afternoon. They and are thought to be making their way back to the continent after leaving town late yesterday afternoon (Wednesday).

They had resisted the council's initial efforts to move them on and with police claiming to be powerless to intervene until the council – as landowner – secured a court order for the eviction of the site, it appeared the stand-off would continue until a hearing date could be set.

But late yesterday afternoon the impasse was broken when the group finally agreed to leave the area after receiving a letter from the authority threatening court action. Councillor Joel Charles, cabinet portfolio holder for community & citizenship, said the travellers had been warned that legal proceedings were under way to force their eviction

"The council had earlier sent the travellers a letter informing them they were trespassing and should leave the Second Avenue site by noon on Wednesday," he said.

"It is obviously a relief that they have kept to their word and left land they were occupying illegally, which clearly means no further legal action is needed on our part."

The authority had applied to Chelmsford County Court for an order for possession on the grounds of trespass, which would have enabled the council to obtain a warrant for eviction and instruct county bailiffs to clear the site.

Cllr Charles added: "We have always had a positive working relationship with the traveller community on our two legal sites

"But the council also has a duty to uphold the law and any travellers camped illegally should understand we will take direct action to clear the site if they do not move on they do not move on.

"Residents expect us to protect the town's green spaces, and that is what we will always do."

Army cadets put through their paces

A GROUP of Army cadets from Harlow put their combat skills to the test when they joined members of the Territorial Army for a series of training exercises.

The youngsters linked up with the 3rd Battalion the Royal Anglian Regiment at Bodney Camp in Norfolk to get hands-on experience of the equipment and training currently used by the TA. Over the course of a weekend the cadets practiced close quarter battle procedures, put their marksmanship to the test on the firing ranges and tackled obstacle courses and climbing walls.

They also had the opportunity to try on and test out some of the kit and equipment used by soldiers on operation in Afghanistan.

"The weekend is specifically designed for older cadets and aims to build on the skills that they have developed during their training sessions and annual camps," said commanding officer Captain

Amber joins Pan's people for the trip to Neverland

THE latest additions to the cast of forthcoming Playhouse pantomime Peter Pan have been unveiled after wowing judges at open auditions.

Amber Wallis (24), from Stevenage, was chosen to play Wendy Darling after beating competition from scores of hopefuls responding to the theatre's Search For Wendy contest, which was run in conjunction with the Harvey Centre throughout October.

The panel were so impressed by the talent on display at the audition they also decided to offer contracts for smaller roles to two other hopefuls -Bella Wright (18) from Bishop's Stortford and Emily Black (19) from Sawbridgeworth.

Panto director Guy Pascall said: "We had a really tough time deciding which girl to offer the part of Wendy to. In the end we realised we could accommodate two of the other girls in other parts and are delighted they're on board."

The trio have all been given professional contracts for the show's month-long run and join a cast that also includes former The Bill star Chris Ellison as Captain Hook, CBBC presenter Jacob Scipio as Peter Pan and rib-tickling panto regular Tom Swift as Smee.

Peter Pan opens on December 2 and runs until January 2. Tickets are available from the Playhouse box office on (01279) 431945 or online at www.playhouseharlow.com.

Teen needs stitches after attack in park

A TEENAGER needed 10 stitches to a wound on his face after he was attacked in Harlow on Sunday evening.

The 13-year-old victim was approached by three youths in Park Lane shortly after 7.30pm. Words were exchanged before the boy was pushed into a bush, kicked and punched. He was left with a severe cut to his cheek.

The three assailants are described as being in their late teens and 5ft 5ins - 6ft tall. One was white, another black and the third Asian.

PC Laurence Turton, of Harlow Police, said: "The area was full of people leaving the Town Park fireworks display at the time.

"This was a nasty, unprovoked attack on a young lad and I ask anyone who may have information to contact me."

If you can help, call police on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Disgraced peer given Lords ban

FORMER Essex County Council leader Lord Hanningfield, who was jailed for cheating on his expenses, has been suspended from the House of Lords for a period of nine months.

and conduct committee recommended on Friday that the former leader of Essex County Council should be given a nine-month ban while Lord Taylor has been suspended for 12 months. The suspensions, which were confirmed yesterday (Wednesday), run from the date they were sentenced.

Lord Hanningfield (70) received a nine-month sentence in July after falsely claiming £13,379 in parliamentary expenses for overnight stays in London when he was not in when he was not in the capital, including one occasion when he was on board a flight to India.

The Lords commissioner's inquiry found he wrongly claimed £30,254. So far he has repaid just £1,800.

He told the conduct committee he planned to repay the full amount and would not return to the House of Lords until he had done so. The suspension means he will not be allowed to take his seat until April next year.

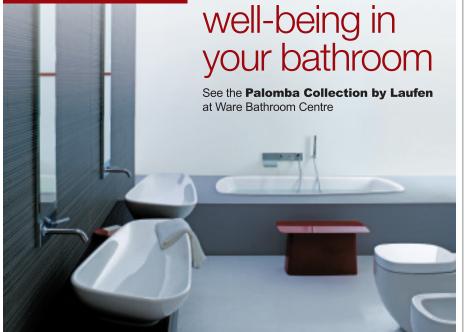

Last month it emerged Lord Hanningfield planned to take legal action against police for "unlawful arrest" over allegations relating to money he claimed when he was county council leader.

In a letter before claim to Essex Police, his lawyers stated he was seeking £3,000 for unlawful arrest and detention, £1,500 for trespass and also legal costs

Town Park heaving for fireworks spectacular

THOUSANDS of people enjoyed another sparkling fireworks display as Harlow's annual bonfire night celebrations went off with a bang on Sunday evening.

A bumper crowd of more than 18,000 people converged on the Town Park for the council-run event, which kicked off with the Heart FM radio roadshow. Council chairman Mike Garnett then lit the bonfire with help from the cast of this year's Playhouse pantomime Peter Pan. Live music and dance performances kept the crowd entertained until the celebrations exploded into life when the first giant rockets of a dazzling halfhour display lit up the sky. Joel Charles, the council's portfolio holder for community & citizenship, said: "The event is now one of the biggest in the area and was once again a huge success.

The world's biggest slab of chocolate - bar none

IT may sound like something Willy Wonka would have thought up but sweet-toothed factory workers have created a six-tonne chocolate bar!

The enormous slab of confectionary, which was made in the UK, has been recognised as the world's biggest after smashing the previous record held by an American firm.

The giant bar was created by chocolate maker Thorntons at its factory in Derbyshire to mark the company's 100th birthday.

More than 50 staff worked for 10 hours to make the tasty treat, filling inflatable tent in the factory car park with buckets of chocolate. It's final weight was 5,827kg, beating the previous record of 5,529kg. The record attempt was the idea of Paul Bell, who works in the factory's toffee department. He told reporters: My favourite childhood film was Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. There was a scene in it where a massive chocolate bar comes in and gets shrunken. I thought it would be great if we could do the

The giant bar will now be smashed up and sold in Thorntons shops across the UK to raise money for

"The Switchover Help Scheme made my switch to digital TV easy"

You may be entitled to help, just like Jean if you're 75 and over or eligible disabled.

"I love watching telly. Feet up with a cuppa, watching Bargain Hunt. Paradise.

But something came between me and my telly. They call it 'the digital TV switchover'. It's when the analogue signal is turned off and you start to lose your TV channels, unless you're ready. It comes to this area soon and will affect every TV in your home that isn't ready for switchover. No point sticking your head in the sand hoping it will go away. It needs sorting.

Help is at hand

As it turned out, there was no need for me to fret. I discovered that everyone 75 and over or eligible disabled was entitled to help switching one of their TVs to digital. I didn't even have to ask. An information pack from the Switchover Help Scheme just turned up one morning in the post. It's run by the BBC. For £40 they will arrange for an approved installer to supply and install everything. If you're eligible and also on certain income-related benefits you don't pay a penny. There are also other digital options to choose from, but they may cost a bit more.

Alan the installer

Well, they didn't have to tell me twice.

I rang up the freephone number and got the help I was entitled to. The lady at the Help Scheme arranged for someone to come round and a very nice fella called

Alan came and set everything up for me. He even took time to show me how to use it. He explained that there were no hidden costs either. In fact the only surprise I got was when Alan showed me all the extra TV channels I could watch for free. When he finished at mine, he went next door to Peggy's. Although she already had digital on her living room telly, she was still entitled to help switching one TV, so he sorted out the TV in her bedroom which she watches a lot.

The help continues

The help doesn't stop there. There is an aftercare service which is very reassuring while you're getting used to things. You can call up if you have any problems. So if you need a little extra

What should you do now?

Everyone who is entitled to help will receive an information pack from the Help Scheme. But if you'd like to apply now, you can call free on 0800 40 85 900 or visit helpscheme.co.uk

As part of its 90th anniversary, the Legion made a funding commitment of $50m to meet the operating costs of four Personnel Recovery Centres and The Royal British Legion Battle Back Centre, a new scheme to provide assistance to injured soldiers and, by association, their families.

This scheme will take soldiers from the point of injury or illness through to their return to duty or into a successful and supported civilian life.

Personnel Recovery Centres

Four Personnel Recovery Centres will operate at locations around the UK. These centres, operated jointly by The Royal British Legion and the Army, will provide a residential base and day care facilities for those who need it.

Each centre will be located inside or close to Army sites, enabling access to Army facilities and support from the Army including existing medical, educational and other garrison facilities.

The Legion Battle Back Centre

The Legion's £50m commitment will also finance the creation of the new Royal British Legion Battle Back Centre', a state-of-the-art facility that will radically improve the recovery of injured service personnel.

The Royal British Legion Battle Back Centre will become a national centre of excellence for adaptive sport and adventure training with the military at its core. Its output will optimise what individuals can do, as opposed to what they cannot do.

The use of sport and adventure activities has a proven track record to aid rehabilitation, providing the foundation for a positive self-image and outlook on life. Adventure training and sport offer significant opportunities to aid reintegration and confidence building for wounded service personnel.

Memories of school from Down Under!

By VICKY LANE vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk

ERE on the Nostalgia desk we are aware that our pages provoke interest far and wide.

This week, however, we think we have received our furthest ever response after Fred Watt from Perth in western Australia got in touch.

Fred was spotted by his mum and sister in this picture of the William Martin School art class taken during the 1960s and originally sent in by Yvonne Rautenbach (nee Darvell) of Old Harlow

"I was the boy sitting at the art class table in the middle of the photo," he writes. "My mum and sister saw the photo and emailed it to me.

'I am now living in Perth and have just taken up art again. I got an O-Level for art but didn't really carry it on before. I am into oil painting of still life mainly."

Moving 'Down Under' more than 22 years ago, Fred says he is now married with five children and has three grandchildren.

"I was a carpenter by trade but 18 years ago I injured my back and can't work now because of the pain so I generally potter around the house making furniture and decorating and painting, but I still love being here." Fred says he has good memories of his time at William Martin, including some of the mischief he got up to. "I remember after a history lesson I went home and found a piece of flint.

I carved it into an arrow head and then I told the teacher that I dug it out of the ground.

"I also recall when we went to the Isle of Wight for a school trip and one night some of the girls thought it would be funny to pull off my bed covers and take photos of me in my judo suit! They certainly found it

He added: "The photo of me is the spitting image of two of my sons -Ricky and Jason – when they were the same age. It would be good to

CAN YOU HELP? Hughenden

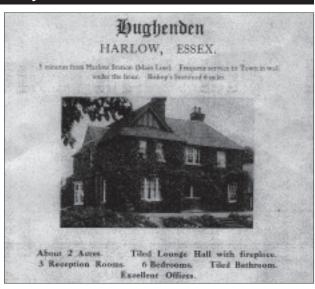

THIS week we are calling on our army of Nostalgia buffs to help with another puzzle causing staff and volunteers at Harlow Museum some trouble.

They recently came across the front page of a 1920s sale catalogue featuring a large house called Hughenden located five minutes from Harlow Station - now Harlow Mill. Local history officer David Devine explained: "The property is set in two acres and has three receptions rooms, six bedrooms and tiled lounge hall with a fireplace and a tiled bathroom.

"The ERO has a map showing it but otherwise it is a mystery! The question for Står reåders is where exactly was it and does it still exist?"

He added: "If anyone could help us with some additional information it would be greatly appreciated."

Do you remember Hughenden House near Harlow Station? Write to Nostalgia, 6 West Gate, Harlow, CM20 1JW or email vicky.lane@ hertsessexnews.co.uk.

DO you know a family by the name of Ridley?

We have received a request from Dursley resident Brian Turner who wants to trace part of his family with whom he has lost contact over the

"I am trying to trace a family named Ridley who used to live at Fullers Mead in Harlow New Town as it was known in the 1960s," he explained "I wondered if there is anyone still in the area of that name and, if so, if they could contact me through your paper?

Are you a Ridley or do you know someone of that name? Get in touch by writing to Nostalgia, 6 West Gate, Harlow, CM20 1JW or email vicky.lane@hertsessexnews.co.uk

5 years ago in the Star

A pub landlord is asking the pranksters who stole the pub's precious stuffed blue cockerel mascot over the weekend to bring it back. The bird, which was taken from the Cock Inn in Great Parndon on Saturday evening during drinking hours, has been living at the pub for many years.

A warning has gone out to youngsters not to ride their bikes in the pedestrian only areas of The High now the busy Christmas shopping season has started. The appeal from police is the result of complaints from shop owners about cyclists riding through the crowds causing distress.

Harlow Council's graffiti removing team is to finally remove posters from the stairway in East Walk after store managers complained that the eyesore was affecting custom. The managers complained to the council that the posters had been there for six months , where usually they would be removed in

AN appeal to "stop the carnage on the roads" was made to millions of television viewers by Harlow MP Jerry Hayes on Monday night. The MP's message on Anglia Reports was made in association with the government's latest Christmas drinkdrive campaign.

THIS Christmas will be tinged with sadness for Hannah Whitby.

In June her beloved grandfather Fred, pictured below, died at the age of 86. So this year Hannah and her family will taking time to remember Fred by taking part in St Clare Hospice's Light Up A Life celebrations.

"Granddad Fred grew up in Dagenham and joined the RAF as a young man, serving in Malaysia before working for British Aerospace," said Hannah (24). "Aircraft and air travel must have been in his blood as his career then took him to British Airways as an avionics engineer and he flew all over the world.

Granddad would tell us many stories about the places he'd been to and the things he'd seen. He lived his life to the full and despite having a triple heart bypass when he was 58 he continued to enjoy time with us – his granddaughters – and the rest of family.

"My relationship with granddad was a close one. He used to take us ice skating and on secret trips to the sweet shop and he helped me with my maths and science homework. I never was very good with those subjects but he'd find all sorts of ways of showing me how to do it.

"When he died it was obviously really hard, especially for my dad. But he had a great life and knowing that helped bring comfort. Family occasions during the year since have been hard, especially Father's Day which wasn't long after. Not having him there was difficult and Christmas will be tough I'm sure."

Although Hannah will be away over the festive period she feels it is important to do something symbolic to mark the first Christmas without her grandfather. "Although I'll be travelling, knowing his light will be shining is a really lovely feeling," she said. "I'm sure the rest of the family will attend the celebration event and who have experienced hospice care send me pictures of his light shining.

Light up a light for those you have

At each special Light Up A Life event lights will be illuminated in memory of loved ones. The first will be held in Loughton at the end of this month, followed by two at the Hastingwood hospice (December 3 and 7), Epping, Ongar, Waltham Abbey, Hatfield Heath and Dunmow.

The events themselves do not take the form of a religious service but are an opportunity to reflect and celebrate, with festive songs and poignant readings. Once the lights are illuminated they will remain shining until 12th Night.

Giles Wright, communications manager for St Clare, said: "Light Up A Life is not solely for people or indeed lost someone in the hospice. It is open to anyone who has lost family, friends or people close to them.

"It can be comforting to know that a symbol of their life is glowing publically and amongst the hustle and bustle of the festivities they are not forgotten."

Anyone who would like to dedicate a light in memory of someone special should call the hospice on (01279) 773750 or visit the website at www.stclarehospice.org.uk. Space at all the events is limited and places must be booked in advance.

If, like Hannah, you cannot attend one of the services near to you, you can still dedicate a light and know it will shine over the festive season.

Town Park fun run is simply Santastic!

IT'S BACK! St Clare Hospice will be holding its third Santa Fun Run this year in Harlow Town Park.

The 4km route is suitable for all the family and organisers are hoping to persuade 300 people to take part. If they succeed the event will raise £10,000 for the hospice. Every adult signing up will receive a free Santa suit and every child will receive a free Santa hat. Registration costs £15 for adults (16 years and above) and £5 for children. The fun run takes place on Sunday, December 11, starting at 11am. To sign up, visit www.stclarehospice.org.uk or call (01279) 773750.

Film stars in town to shoot internet thriller

PARTS of Harlow town centre came to a standstill this week as camera crews rolled in to shoot began at Burnt Mill School over the half-term holiday and continued at locations including Broad Walk, East Gate, The Rows, West Square, Terminus Street and Post Office Road yesterday (Wednesday).

Directed by Andrew Douglas, the psychological thriller stars Jamie Blackley, Joanne Frogatt and Jaime Winstone - daughter of Hollywood actor Ray - and is based on the true

A Harlow Council spokesman said the authority had been working closely with the production team to keep disruption during filming to a minimum.

The film isn't about Harlow nor is it based on Harlow," he added. "The town along with Hemel Hempstead is purely being used as a film location

"Residents have also been given roles as extras in the film and local businesses will benefit too as a large production crew will be working in the town and the town centre.

"It also provides the council with an opportunity for Harlow to be pro-.... opportunity for riarlow to be promoted as a film location in the south east."

THE BROXBOURNE SCHOOL Sixth Form Open Evening Wednesday 23rd November 2011 5.30 pm to 8.00 pm

Prospective Sixth Form students and their parents are invited to meet subject leaders to discuss the various options available for study

'Quality of provision in sixth form; teaching and learning; the curriculum and other activities; care guidance and support: all graded '1' 'outstanding'. 'Students are unambiguous about the high quality of support they are given by teachers when it is needed.' (Ofsted 2007). (Ofsted interim assessment 2011 'performance sustained'

'The school has good pastoral systems in place to support able learners, there are well developed mentoring programmes aimed at supporting those students aspiring to Oxbridge or those universities with the most demanding entry requirements. Analysis of the progression routes of past students shows clearly that increasing numbers have successfully met these requirements' (National Acceptation for Able Children in Education (NACE' 2010) Association for Able Children in Education 'NACE' 2010)

- Outstanding academic achievement (2011 APS per entry 222, APS per student 935)

Exhibition celebrates first anniversary of arts project

Essex has opened at the Gibberd Gallery in Harlow Civic Centre to celebrate the first anniversary of the Gatehouse Arts studio and gallery.

It is now a year since 21 affordable artists' studios and a new community arts space opened in West Gate in the town centre, encouraging shoppers and visitors to attend open studio events, workshops and gallery shows throughout the year. Gatehouse Arts was started as a partnership project between Essex County Council, Harlow Renaissance, Harlow Town Centre Partnership, Harlow Council and ACAVA. The aim was to stimulate activity in the town centre during difficult economic times as well as providing a valuable resource for local Jeremy Lucas, Essex County Council's cabinet member for environment and culture, said: "Gatehouse Arts has been an exciting initiative and has provided fantastic opportunities for budding artists from Essex and other parts of the Joel Charles, portfolio holder for community and citizenship at Harlow Council, added: "Drawn From Essex is an ambitious event which showcases the variety of work being produced by the Gatehouse group.

"We are lucky to have the largest open public gallery in Essex in our town at the Civic Centre so I urge everyone to come and see this exciting and accessible

Players hunt for pirate treasure

By CHRIS MOSS

A SWASHBUCKLING tale of a doubloons and double-crossing pirates sets sail at Moot Hall next week as Harlow's longest-running am-dram group search for Davy Jones' fabled treasure.

Moot House Players' production of children's comedy romp Avarst Behind, penned by the theatre company's long-time set designer Paul Regeli, opens at the venue in The Stow on Thursday for a three-night run. Set in 18th century Bristol, the play follows a bungling crew of cut-throat pirates as they set off on a frantic treasure hunt after stealing a map from a crooked magistrate.

But a tangle of unlikely events and disasters is set in motion even before they set sail, with innkeeper's daughter Millie Sweetheart getting dragged into the shambles when her dim boyfriend impoverished aristocrat the Hon. Fwederick Forstescue Forsythia Creeper – manages to get himself enrolled in the gang of salty seadogs. In a series of twists and turns, the story romps and rampages through the streets of 18th century Bristol and across the oceans as the cretinous undertaking, but it's shaping up to be

Santa's hi-tech secret is a 3D Christmas cracker

ARTHUR CHRISTMAS 3D certificate U, 1h37m

AS all intelligent children know, Santa Claus and his team of toy elves work tirelessly throughout the year from their secret base at the North Pole.

When the clocks strike midnight on December 24, the great man takes to the skies in his sleigh, delivering presents to the entire world in the space of one night.

Thanks to satellite technology, we can even track his progress via the North American Aerospace Defence Command website. Yet still a few Scrooges in the scientific community have cast doubt on Father Christmas's ability to bend the laws of time. Now Aardman, creators of Wallace and Gromit, puts these naysayers in their place and reveals the truth about Santa's 21st century operations in this hugely entertaining computer-animated comedy that delivers a feast of family fun for the festive season. Arthur Christmas is a treat for the very young and the young at heart, affirming all of the wholesome messages of the holiday season without lingering too long on the rampant materialism.

At the heart of the story is a kind and selfless young man who believes that every child is important at Christmas and that we are all responsible for keeping the magic alive.

Santa (voiced by Jim Broadbent) has been the figurehead of the Yuletide season for decades and he proudly oversees this year's delivery of presents in his hi-tech spacecraft, masterminded with military precision by eldest son Steve (Hugh Laurie). Down in the bowels of the craft. youngest son Arthur (James McAvoy) answers correspondence from the children of the world including a young British girl called Gwen (Ramona Marquez). But a malfunction in the loading bay goes unnoticed by the elves in mission control and Gwen doesn't receive her pink bicycle.

With time running out until Gwen's Christmas is ruined, Arthur joins forces with Grandsanta (Bill Nighy) and wrapping elf Bryony (Ashley Jensen) to deliver Gwen's gift using the old sleigh and a team of retired reindeers.

Arthur Christmas is festooned with loveable characters and belly laughs, from Laurie's pompous Santa-in-waiting to Nighy's old-timer who rejects all of these technological improvements to centuries of tradition.

Imelda Staunton lends her warm tones to Mrs Santa and Justin Bieber sings a suitably jolly rendition of Santa Claus Is Comin' To Town over the end

With December 25 only a few weeks away, Arthur Christmas is a wonderful early present, guaranteed to have the whole family bursting with festive

MANY centuries ago the Gods waged war against the Titans and imprisoned them within Mount Tartaro in a cage that can only be broken by a bolt from the mythical Epirus Bow.

Megalomaniac King Hyperion (Mickey Rourke) and his hordes declare war on the Gods by ravaging the land in search of the bow.

Ancient law prevents Zeus (Luke Evans), his daughter Athena (Isabel Lucas) and the other Gods from intervening in mankind's conflict, so they watch with mounting dread from their vantage point on Mount Olympus as Hyperion slaughters everyone who gets in his way. Strapping Theseus (Henry Cavill) witnesses his mother Aethra (Anne Day-Jones) falling to the swords of Hyperion's hordes and seeks vengeance, but many obstacles stand between him and his showdown with Hyperion, including the hulking Minotaur (Robert

In Time In an emotionally starved globe in which money has become obsolete and the currency is time, people are engineered to age until they reach 25 years old. Then a time, embedded in their arm, begins to tick down second by second to their demise. During a night out, Will Salas (Justin Timberlake) has a chance encounter with handsome yet suicidal rich man Henry Hamilton (Matt Bomer) who donates 100 years of his time to Will's body clock. Granted access to the most exclusive parts of the city, Will learns the truth about how Philippe Weis (Vincent Kartheiser) and the men in power manipulate the populace for their own gain. Will vows to bring down the corrupt system forging an unlikely alliance with Philippe's rebellious daughter Sylvia (Amanda Seyfried).

The Adventures of Tintin: The cret of The Unicorn (3D & 2D) Tintin (Jamie Bell) buys a model ship and is plunged into a centuries-old mystery involving Ivan Ivanovitch Sakharine (Daniel Craig). Ivan asks Tintin to name his price for the boat but the reporter refuses to sell, sensing the wooden vessel is far more valuable than it first appears. Sure enough, a cryptic conundrum lies within, revealing that "only a true Haddock will discover the secret of The Unicorn." Assisted by trusty pooch Snowy, Tintin searches for more clues and meets boozesodden Captain Haddock (Andy Serkis), whose family history holds the key to the mystery of a cursed shipwreck.

Office, 4 Church Street, Sawbridgeworth. Telephone: (01279) DATING back to the elegant Edwardian era. this three-bedroom detached house in Old Harlow has all the charm of a period property with the convenience of modern living.

Bury Road is a short walk to the town centre with shops, restaurants, pubs, schools and Harlow Mill train station.

The entrance hall has a stunning checkerboard tiled floor with stairs rising to the first floor landing. Leading off the hall is the sitting room with a square bay window to the front and an attractive gas coal-effect fire on a raised slate hearth with timber surround.

Next to this is the dining room which has an understairs storage cupboard/wine storage area.

A charming garden room has a double opening door with access to the rear terrace and garden beyond. From here is a door to the cloakroom and then another to a small utility room – which has space for a washing machine and fridge freezer - and a further storage room.

The kitchen features a range of matching units with complementary tiled splash backs. There is an integrated twin oven with cupboards and pan storage under, a fourring hob with extractor hood over and slate effect tiled floor.

details of this property.

Upstairs is a half-galleried landing with large flank window.

The master bedroom has windows to two aspects and views over the gardens. There is a small tiled fireplace with cast iron raised grate and surround.

There are a further two bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Directly to the rear of the property is an extensive paved stone terrace with lawn beyond. To the front of the house is a hard standing with wrought iron railings.

Our advice on this is to be careful. Certainly, improve your home to make it appeal to prospective buyers, but your primary objective should not necessarily be to add significant value, but to enhance saleability. This means making your property more desirable than the other properties currently on the market at about the same price.

In an increasingly competitive market place, priced attractively, it will sell. However, many people spend a fortune on improving their homes expecting at least the cost of the improvements to be returned to them via an increased sale price. This can be a mistake, as 90% of a property's value can usually be attributed to its location and size – the two things you can't change!

we know that as long as your property is

You can make any property desirable simply by quoting a price which makes it look amazingly good value next to the others, which may themselves of course be overpriced. However, without throwing your money into subsidising someone's purchase, there are simple things that can be done to make sure your property looks worth the

Much of it relates to lifestyle as much as it does to bricks and mortar. For example, a thorough spring clean complete with the smell of pine bleach in the bathroom suggests you're proud of your home and care for it. Cost? Probably about 20p!

How about a lick of paint on the doors? Stripped floorboards generally look better than worn carpets, and a day's work in the garden pays real dividends. Try new light fittings or re-grouting the bathroom tiles. Also, remove any superfluous items from the garden and inside the property, keeping your storage areas tidy as well.

The key is not to rely on your prospective buyers' intuition! Make it easy for them to imagine how pleasant it would be to live in your property, and you could well prompt an

A new look for BMW's baby

By Iain Dooley

N a world of front wheel drive hatchbacks, BMW's first generation 1 Series was always going to be different from the norm. The biggest talking point was its looks. A bold statement, it divided opinion yet the car's popularity was proof that huvers seeking a compact premium alternative were willing to embrace BMW's baby. With its rear-drive set-up it shamelessly targeted keen drivers, vet rear cabin space was closer to that of a two-plustwo coupe than compact hatchback. Despite being a compromise for some, the 1 Series was still a hit.

Second time around and BMW's plan to address some of the first car's shortcomings appear to have worked.

In keeping with the new 5 and 6 Series models, this 1 Series boasts a more rounded exterior. Although it's no less visually arresting than its predecessor, the corners have been rounded off to give a softer, more approachable personality. And then there's the cabin space, which has been expanded to help boost the car's family-friendly credentials. You'll still find more room in surfaced roads.

the back of a conventional hatchback, but BMW's sporting alternative has grown slightly inside thanks to its extended wheelbase.

Rear seat occupants will now find a reason to cheer and there's more room in boot, too. Up front and the car's fascia has clearly been influenced by that of the 6 Series. It all feels a little more driver centric than before, which is something that should please fans of the brand Looks aside, the biggest change to the 1 Series is how it behaves on the road. It would be fair to say that the car has matured in the time since it first appeared and there's been a gentle softening of its ride to help cosset occupants over poorly

Far from being a compromise made in hell, this is a pleasingly pragmatic approach from BMW. This car, like so many others, will spend a lot of time in cities, and its sensible suspension settings make perfect sense.

All told, it's a relaxing and grown-up experience. Part of the praise for this performance should go the car's engine range. Predictably, BMW's plan of reducing fuel consumption and emissions continues with the 1 Series. Buyers can choose from a range of all-new petrol units or heavily revised diesel motors. The 1.6-litre petrol motors are full of important technology - turbocharging, direct fuel injection – and produce 134 and 167 horsepower in 116i and 118i guise respectively. With plenty of torque available thanks to the turbo effect, these engines prove surprisingly gutsy, especially the entry level 116i. On the diesel front there's a selection of 2.0-litre turbo units with power outputs ranging from 115 to 181 horsepower. Predictably these will offer the most gains in economy and emissions, making them particularly attractive to company car drivers seeking to minimise their tax outlay. BMW's focus on economy extends to engine stop-start technology and the recalibrating of throttle and air-con settings when in eco mode, which should deliver incremental savings over the ownership period.

Factor in low CO² ratings – sub 120g/km is the norm for a number of variants – and a general weight reduction plan, and while the 1 Series will be seen as a premium choice it's also capable of saving you money in the long run.

You will need to open you wallet a little wider when it comes to equipping your new 1 Series, though.

Standard kit levels are good by BMW standards but, predictably, there are plenty of tempting options to choose from. Sat-nav integrated with the car's MP3 player and Bluetooth function is an attractive option, as are the various wheel and cosmetic trim enhancements.

Available in four trim levels (ES, SE and Sport, Urban), there's plenty of choice regarding equipment levels and the degree of sporty driving behaviour available.

For anyone seeking a premiumfeel car with a modest footprint, the 1 Series is worthy of consideration.

And in typical BMW style, the car's rear-wheel drive layout will please keen drivers everywhere.

Soft Furnishings Sales Assistant

We require a bright and capable person to provide customers with sales advice over a wide range of quality curtains, blinds and cushions. You will enjoy working with people, be capable of giving first class customer service and ideally have retail experience with a thorough understanding of soft furnishings. However as full training can be provided, this role would also suit someone with a keen interest in interior design, colours, fashions and textiles. This position will involve weekend working. In return we provide a highly competitive salary package including sales commissions, contributory pension scheme, staff discount and 29 days annual leave per annum.

Customer Services Assistant

Initially on a temporary basis but with a possibility of becoming permanent, this full time job involves customer liaison both face to face and over the telephone. You will deal with suppliers to sort out queries and resolve customer complaints and no two days are the same. Office experience is essential as are decent computer skills and a pleasant telephone manner. The hours of work are four weekdays 9.00am to 5.30pm and Saturday 9.00am to 6.00pm.

Sunday Telephonist/Receptionist

We require an intelligent person who has common sense and a pleasant telephone manner to undertake this role. Ideally you will have relevant experience but full training can be provided to the right person. The hours of work are 10.15am to 4.30pm.

To apply, please write with a copy of your CV to: Mr N Smith, HR Director, Fishpools Limited, 115 High Street, Waltham Cross, Herts, EN8 7AL. Alternatively call him on (01992) 780790 for an informal discussion. You can also e-mail your CV to jobs@fishpools.co.uk

(Burnt Mill Lane, Harlow) (Temporary Prohibition of Traffic) Order 2011

Notice is hereby given that the Essex County Council has made the above Order under section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984. Effect of the order: To temporarily close that length of Burnt Mill Lane in the District of Harlow, from a point 400 metres south of its junction Eastwick Road to a point 150 metres east of its junction with A414 Fifth Avenue/Allende Avenue.

The closure is scheduled to commence on 11 November 2011 for 1 day between the hours of 08:00 to 16:00 and 30 November 2011 for 1 day between the hours of 08:00 to 16:00 or where appropriate signs are showing and weather permitting.

The closure is required for the safety of the public and workforce whilst works to remove the lock gates are undertaken.

The alternative route will be via Eastwick Road - A414 Fifth Avenue/ Allende Avenue - Burnt Mill Lane and vice versa.

Access for emergency service vehicles and pedestrians will be maintained at all times during the closure.

The Order will come into effect on 11 November 2011 and may continue in force for 18 months or until the works have been completed, whichever is the earlier.

Yim Kong, County Hall, Chelmsford, Assistant Director for Highways.

Notice of Making of an Order (Other than an Acquisition Extinguishment Order) Highways Act 1980 - Sections 118 and 119 Essex County Council District of Epping Forest Footpaths 3, 4,& 5 (part) Moreton

(i) Extinguishment (S118)

The above Order made on the 27th September 2011 under section 118 of the Highways Act 1980 will extinguish a part length of public footpaths 3 and 5 in the Parish of Moreton in the District of Epping Forest as shown on the Order map contained in this Order. The effect of the Order will be to extinguish a part length of footpath 3 Moreton starting from its junction with footpath 4 in a generally north easterly direction to its junction with Byway 1 (also known as North Lane) for a total distance of 523 metres and to extinguish a part length of footpath 5 Moreton starting from its junction with Church Road in a generally northerly then westerly direction to its junction with footpath 3 Moreton.

(ii) Diversion (S119)

at a charge.

The above Order made on the 27th September 2011 under section 119 of the Highways Act 1980 will divert a part length of public footpath 3 and footpath 4 in the Parish of Moreton in the District of Epping Forest District Council as shown on the Order map contained in this Order. The effect of the Order will be to divert a part length of footpath 3 and footpath 4 Moreton starting from Church Road, in a generally northerly, westerly then northerly direction to Byway 1 also known as North Lane) for a total distance of approximately 741 metres to an alternative route being 2 metres in width commencing at the same point in a northerly, westerly then northerly direction to where it meets Byway 1 (also known as North Lane), for a total distance of approximately 738 metres.

Footpath 7, (Part) & Footpath 53 (Part) Roydon. (iii) Diversion (S119)

The above Order made on 25th October, 2011 will divert a part length. of public Footpath 7 in the Parish of Roydon in the District of Epping. The effect of the order will be to divert the paths from their definitive line through properties in Parkfields and Hansells Mead, to alternative routes through existing alley ways already used by the public. The Order will also divert a northern section of Footpath 53 from its definitive line on the western side of the hedge to an alternative route along the existing track on the western side, as shown on the Order map contained in this Order. A copy of the above Orders and the Order Maps have been placed in and may be seen free of charge at Epping Forest District Council at High Street, Epping, CM16 4BZ and at the Chelmsford Public Library, Market Road, Chelmsford during normal working hours. Copies of the Order and Order map are available on request from the Chelmsford Library

Any representation about or objection to an Order may be sent or delivered in writing addressed to Ann Tompkins, Definitive Map Service Essex County Council, County Hall, E3, Market Road, Chelmsford CM1 1QH, quoting reference no. 22/134/89 or 22/134/138 respectively no later than 8 December 2011 and should state the grounds on which it is made. If no such representations or objections are duly made, or if any so made are withdrawn, Essex County Council may itself confirm an Order as an unopposed Order. If an Order is sent to the Secretary of State for the Environment for confirmation, any representations or objections which have not been withdrawn will be sent together with the Order.
Any such representation or objections will be taken into account by the Council with the result that they may be made available to the public under the Local Government (Access to Information) Act 1985.

Late goal completes remarkable comeback

A LATE winner from skipper Carolyn Welsford completed an excellent fightback for Harlow Ladies' first team as they bounced back from 2-0 down to win at lowly Old Southendians.

Harlow struck two goals to make it 2-2 and five minutes remained when Welsford converted a penalty corner from the top of the D to seal all three points.

The victory on Saturday also saw Harlow move into second snot. They are now five points behind leaders

Crunch match boost with win for Ladies by Harlow Rugby Club's women's team before their key home clash against Hampstead in the RFU Women's South East North One division (KO 2pm). The Rams lie third in the table with nine points from three matches just a spot behind second-placed Hampstead who have 14 points from four games.

Teams get four points for a

Chelmsford 14, Harlow 32 Friendly win and a bonus point for scoring four or more tries, so there is all to play for.

In their last match, Harlow won 32-14 at Chelmsford in a friendly.

The visitors led 17-7 at the break.

Julie Gilbert scored Harlow's first try from a catch and drive.

Gilbert scored another try in the first half and Rebecca Conway also touched down. Conway kicked one conversion.

Harlow conceded a try after the break, but scored three themselves in the second period. Gilbert completed a hat-trick of tries while Lucie Gibson and Sarah Stimpson also scored tries Harlow's forwards gave a solid stable platform for structured phases of play, creating space for strong running from the backs.

HARLOW: Stimpson, Millman, McKenna, Conway, Perry, Gibson, Smith, Baldwin, Cotterill, Wooller, Billings, Lee, Marshall, Doherty, Gilbert.

Plenty of bite beats Cougars

Harlow Hawks 77, Cambridge Cougars 61

Herts County Basketball League, premier division

PLAYER-coach Shab Niaz was uplifted after Harlow Hawks held their nerve to beat Cambridge Cougars at home.

Cougars have proved tricky opposition for Hawks in the last few years and the latter overcame awkward moments to win on Friday.

Niaz said: "It was a good win. Towards the late stages of the game Cougars made a charge and we coped well to see us through

The Cougars opened the scoring, but the hosts responded with good movement off the ball which resulted in Nick Moss and Joe Taffe-Atkins combining for nine points.

Sharp-shooter Shab Niaz provided the threat from beyond the arc.

However, a couple of late baskets from Cougars resulted in them taking a16-14 lead going into the second quarter.

This second period saw excellent defence from the hosts as they hustled and harried, restricting Cougars to just six points.

Luke Atkinson finished a number of moves, while Shab Niaz and Dave Spashett did the damage with three-pointers as the Hawks built up a lead of 33-22 by the halfway stage.

The hosts' strong defence was maintained in the third quarter, which saw Cougars score only nine points.

Hawks struggled to get anything going inside on the offensive end but Shab Niaz scored four three-pointers in a row and another one came from Chris Jackson.

The Essex team led 50-31 going into the final quarter.

Poor defence from the home side then let the visitors score a couple of three-pointers, while turnovers by Hawks led to fast break points for Cambridge.

Cougars had managed to cut the lead to just seven points with five minutes left. This led to Hawks calling a time out to regroup and refocus.

Hawks player Adam Ball then got inside for a couple of scores.

Harlow held their nerve and started to sink their free-throw shots down the stretch to open up a comfortable lead again and win by 16 points.

Shab Niaz added: "It was good to close out the game and hopefully will benefit us going forwards as there will be a lot of close

'Now we need to build on this. We have tougher test at home against Luton [tomorrow]

HARLOW HAWKS (squad): S. Niaz (26pts), Ball (11), Moss (10), Jackson (9), Taffe-Atkins (8), L. Atkinson (6), Spashett (5), Allan (2pts), Z. Niaz, Burgess, Morris, Askdu-Offei.

Top triumph for Harlow U-15s

A MATURE display guided Harlow Rugby Club's U-15 team to a well-earned 25-0 home victory over Basildon in division three of the Essex League U-15 division.

Good rucking, decision mak-ing and thoughtful passing were positive features of Harlow's display on Sunday.

The hosts scored two early tries which were not converted. However, the Young Rams were forced to defend hard youth rugby

against some strong Basildon pressure before the hosts scored a third try just before the break.

Harlow scored two more tries shortly after the interval.

The conversions were missed. The hosts conceded penalties. but Basildon were unable to capitalise and get on the scoresheet. The Rams try-scorers' were Jack Christy, Rhys Whitby,

Stevenson, Shakur Daniel Dixon-Chennis and Marriott

HARLOW U-15 (squad): Almond, Beard. Bunker, Christy, DeFranca, Dixon-Chennis, Dowers, Fry, Hodgkinson, Isaacs, Mallardo, Marriott, Playle, Prudence, Richards, Seeley, Stevenson, Meanwhile, Harlow U-13s lost narrowly 27-25 at home to Braintree in the Essex League.

Harlow U-17s led 14-10 at half-time before they went down 19-15 at home to Datchworth.

Rams crack on in Vase

A Harlow move broke down and Cheshunt exploited a loose ball before Geoff Hayden dashed over from 40m for a try, converted by Reece Shoebridge.

The Rams led 17-12 but any further threat was partly nullified by strong play from the home forwards in the loose.

Smith kicked a 32nd-minute penalty before kicking an excellent drop goal just before the break.

Harlow led 23-12 at half-time.

The hosts had the slope in their favour in the second half, most of which they dominated and scored three more tries.

The first came when Crafton powered over for an unconverted touch down from a five-metre

Harlow continued to apply pressure and Danny Stonehouse touched down from a rolling

Just before the end, Harlow substitute Mark Groggins burst through the visitors' defence to score a try and Smith kicked the conversion.

Bunn's backing for partnership

Former Spurs, Enfield and Bishop's Stortford forward Bunn, 33, worked hard in the summer and has lost a lot of weight.

And the new slimline Bunn has started to look his old self in front of goal.

Desperately unlucky not to score at the start of the second-half, he grabbed the winner on 80 minutes

He showed great composure to take a touch before drilling the ball into the bottom left corner.

Bunn told the Star he hopes his partnership with Wixon can continue to blossom. "We link up very well," he said. "We are on the same level and we put each other in and we can both finish. He has got a few goals. Hopefully now I'm getting fitter I can get some more."

The striker said it was important the players put behind them a poor performance at Cheshunt the previous week, when they lost

"It was one of those things. We move on from that and hopefully learn a lesson."

Matt Lincs up for Super 1 race debut

motor racing

MATT Hayden's chances of competing in the National Super 1 series next year have improved. Racers need to have competed on three different circuits to be eligible and the 10-year-old Harlow schoolboy has done this after competing on a track near Grantham in Lincolnshire.

Matt, who attends Pear Tree Mead School in Harlow, regularly competes at the Rye House circuit in Hoddesdon and Buckmore Park in Kent.

In a club event in Lincolnshire, Matt was seventh from a field of 32 in the final of a cadets series and gained seven places after starting 14th on the grid.

His top seven finish was creditable after a shaky start. He finished last out of 32 racers in the first heat after starting 22nd on the grid, before he came 8th in the second heat after starting 15th.

Matt then finished 7th after starting sixth in the last heat. This qualified him for the final event.

He was third out of 655 finishers and first Vet 40 in a fantastic 34:59.

This was just eight seconds outside his own HRC record for his age group.

Dionne Jones performed even better by improving the HRC Vet 40 record, which has stood since 1992.

She beat the previous best by more than a minute to finish in 88th place and took the third veteran woman prize in a superb 42:35, a personal best (PB).

John Bull finished in 93rd place in 42:44, just half a minute outside his PB time.

At the Stevenage half marathon, the first Harlow runner was John Tennant in 86th place out of 668 finishers in 1:35.07. He was closely followed home by David Ayling (109th in 1:36.48) and Sean Flynn (158th in 1.39.44, PB).

First Harlow woman was Sharon Wright in PB by almost two minutes. She was followed home by Janice Page (313th in 1:50.33, a PB by almost two minutes).

Her husband David Page was not far behind in 343rd place in 1:52.55.

Clair Sullivan, making her debut at this distance, was 521st in 2:05.39 and Linda Hawkins was 564th in 2:10.35.

Steve Murtagh maintained his good recent form with an 8th place finish and the first Vet 40 prize at London's Serpentine 5K series of races. He produced a PB time of 16:59 which was a new HRC Vet 45 record.

This was a late result from last week.

Fightback seals another scalp

Harlow Tn 3, Lewes 2

Carlsberg FA Trophy, second qualifying round

By ALAN SCOTT

Sports Editor alan.scott@hertsessexnews.co.uk

THE Hawks provided all the fireworks on Bonfire Night as they launched a stunning fightback from 2-0 down to beat Ryman premier high-flyers Lewes and advance to the FA Trophy final qualifying round.

Having fought back from the same deficit to upset Concord Rangers in the first qualifying round, Danny Chapman's men turned their attention to the East Sussex side who currently sit third in the premier division table.

The Hawks were brilliant throughout, but were 2-0 down just 32 seconds into the second half on Saturday when Lewes scored another goal against the run of play.

But Harlow fought back with two Danny Brown penalties before James Bunn netted a 80th-minute winner. Harlow pocketed £3,000 prize money for the second qualifying round win.

After the excellent Luke Marshall and Piers Wixon both went desperately close for Harlow in the first 10 minutes, Lewes scored against the run of

A free-kick on the left from Christian Nanetti, who has been on trial at Charlton Athletic, was met by Ian Draycott who outmuscled two Hawks defenders to head in from close range on 25 minutes.

Close to half-time Wixon was upended by Lewes keeper Fabian Speiss, but the referee Scholes waved away appeals for a spot-kick.

Seconds into the second half, Draycott doubled Lewes' lead.

He struck from the right side of the box with a shot that flew into the far top corner after statuesque defending. Bunn was unlucky when his Wixon's right-wing cross. Hawks boss Danny Chapman thinks Wixon and Bunn can't play together, but on this evidence – he's wrong!

However, he must wish his team would stop giving sides' 2-0 leads in this competition!

Bunn, who struck the winner, told the Star: "I would say we were the best team over the 90 minutes. We've got to try and stop giving sides 2-0 leads. Once we got the second, we felt we were the only ones who would get a winner.

"It was a very good performance from us. It showed a good response from the group of players we have got. We all get on very well. Not just on the pitch, but off the pitch. There is a good

England Schools Championships in March. Meanwhile, six Harlow school pupils competed for Woodford Green AC in the English Cross Country Relay Championships at Berry Park in Mansfield on Saturday.

In the U-13 girls race over 3 legs of 2km, Stewards School pupil Rosie Poole (12) was 28th after the first leg out of 110 runners.

Her time of 7 minutes and 58 seconds placed her 42nd fastest overall for this age

Rosie was followed by Jodi Ratcliffe (13), a Mark Hall School student, who had taken the team up to 19th by the end of the second leg.

The Essex club finished in 27th after three legs.

In the U-13 boys race (three legs of 2km), Mark Hall pupil Canaan Soloman (13) was not ready when the gun was fired. leaving him at the back of 100 runners.

He did remarkably well to finish third and his time of 7:09 for the course was the 7th fastest overall.

BACK TO HIS BEST: Striker James Bunn in action against Lewes in the FA Trophy on Saturday (HSP0782185)

Bunn's backing for partnership is food for thought!

HAWKS striker James Bunn believes his partnership with Piers Wixon can gel and help Danny Chapman's men march up the Ryman division one north table. Bunn and Wixon linked up superbly as Harlow fought back from 2-0 down to pull off a remarkable comeback as they beat Ryman premier high-flyers Lewes in the FA Trophy second qualifying round on Saturday.

The Harlow manager has persisted with Bunn and Wixon in a new 4-4-2 formation for the last six games and the signs are that the pairing could provide the spark that >>Continued on page 82

as the perfect day to give the club's players a rocket!

And the under-performing Harlow Town players certainly got the message as the side bounced back from their woeful 2-0 loss at Cheshunt the previous week to upset Ryman premier side Lewes in the FA Trophy last weekend.

Barnett, top, used his programme notes for Saturday's tie to condemn the players' lack of commitment in a series of league matches this term.

The Hawks, who visit neighbours Waltham Abbey in the Ryman division one north this Saturday, are languishing in 11th spot when they should really be further up the table.

Barnett fumed: "All I want to see from anyone who pulls on the Harlow Town jersey is 100 per cent commitment, whether they win or lose.

"I'm afraid to say some of our players have not been playing for the badge or for the privilege of representing Harlow Town FC; they have just been going through the motions, which is not what this club is about.

Chairman

"Some players have not been giving 100 per cent and that's simply unacceptable."

Harlow have certainly not hit top form in the league and things came to a head with a bitterly dis-

> Ryman premier side Lewes 3-2 on Saturday after a thrilling comeback to advance to the final qualifying

Bunn hopes the side can advance even further in the FA Trophy after wins against the two Ryman premier sides.

He told the Star: "It's nice to progress in this tournament. It will be appointing home defeat to lowly Maldon & Tiptree United a month Barnett said: "I was so disgusted by the manner of last month's home defeat to Maldon & Tiptree that I did something I have never done before at a football match - I left immediately on the final whistle without meeting the team, fellow directors or management.

"I did that because I wanted some of the players in particular to know how betrayed and let down I felt by their palpable lack of effort on the field.

After the Maldon loss, Hawks produced good performances against Leiston, Bury and Bury and Concord but there was then another setback with the lacklustre display against Cheshunt.

This result prompted rumours the club could replace boss Danny Chapman.

However, the Hawks chairman joined co-owner Tom Cunningham in backing the former centre-half, who took over as first team boss nearly nine months ago.

Barnett added: "There is no doubt that Danny brings an air of calmness to this club, which is essential if we are to progress. He rarely loses his temper, although I wouldn't have blamed him if he had done that after the Maldon

"He also brings a lot of professionalism. He was an excellent player himself and he knows exactly what he wants from his team. He's got a good football brain, he's solid, dependable and

HARLOW Town have been handed an peen handed an excellent home draw against Ryman premier side Lowestoft Town in the third and final qualifying round of the FA Trophy.

The Suffolk side, currently sixth in the table, have a very large travelling support so their visit to Barrows Farm will no doubt boost the coffers considerably.

The Hawks defeated

Hawks striker James

the club to get a great tie, but we want to progress. A smaller side would have been good."

Hawks player-assistant boss Christian Wheeler tweeted: "Lowestoft Town will do very nicely, hopefully they'll bring a few and we'll have a good sized crowd." The tie will be played on Saturday November
